

2018 Tennessee Housing Conference

Housing Plus:

Integrating Services with Housing

MeadowView Conference Center

May 8, 2018

Presented by:

Tennessee Housing Development Agency
and the Tennessee Affordable Housing Coalition

Sponsored by:

Federal Home Loan Bank of Cincinnati

9:00 a.m.

Registration

9:30 a.m.

Creating Permanent Supportive Housing

Buffalo Valley, Inc., will walk us through the development, financing, partnerships, challenges, and ultimate success of Patriot Place, a 36-unit apartment complex north of Nashville offering military veterans much more than an affordable place to live.

- Deborah A. Hillin, President, Buffalo Valley, Inc.

10:15 a.m.

Creating Housing for Veterans and TennCare Recipients

United Housing builds single-family homes in Memphis where military veterans and TennCare recipients with disabilities can live while receiving care from its many partner organizations. Johnson City Housing Authority's Baker Street development provides housing and coordinated services to veterans and youth aging out of foster care.

- Amy Schaflein, Executive Director, United Housing, Inc.
- Richard McClain, Executive Director, Johnson City Housing Authority

11:00 a.m.

Ending Veteran Homelessness in Chattanooga

In 2017, USICH, HUD, and the VA declared the City of Chattanooga had effectively ended homelessness among veterans, meaning the community built the infrastructure and systems to ensure any veteran experiencing homelessness in Chattanooga will get the support they need to quickly obtain a permanent home. Mr. Yount will share the strategies, partnerships, procedures, and technologies that made this major accomplishment possible.

- Tyler Yount, Director of Special Projects, Chattanooga

11:45 p.m.

Lunch

Ralph M. Perrey, Executive Director, THDA

Damon V. Allen, SVP, Housing & Community Investment Officer, FHLB

12:30 p.m.

One-Stop Centers for Supportive Services

One-stop Centers provide comprehensive support to veterans and their families in a single, convenient location. Discover how Operation Stand Down is breaking down barriers to offer the coordinated services of a wide range of independent providers under one roof, including housing, employment, education, and healthcare.

- General Eden Murrie, Chief Operating Officer, Operation Stand Down, Nashville

1:15 p.m.

Facilitated Table Discussions

Each table will discuss which ideas and strategies can be implemented locally and how. Notes from these discussions will be shared by social media and email to all participants and those unable to attend.

2:00 p.m.

Close